

The five big unions that are strikers on the Harriman lines have joined together to prosecute the strike, and local leaders believed that the theory of the railroads is that the combination of the unions is the only way to win the strike.

The Philosophy of a Bargain

By M. A. N.

What is a bargain? A bargain, from a business view, is a mercantile transaction, wherein the vendor or buyer obtains merchandise at a price far below the market value. Bargains are governed by the economic law of supply and demand. When there is a big demand to buy (as before Christmas) bargains are scarce, but when the market is dull, bargains are in abundance. There are good bargains and bad ones. Oftentimes a person will grab at an article, believing it to be the biggest bargain of his life, only to have his expectations dashed to pieces by the discovery of a latent defect—inferior quality—unseasonable goods, etc. Genuine bargains are as scarce as buffaloes. You have got to hunt hard before you find one.

If you want to get real, good, genuine bargains in Men's Suits and Overcoats, Ladies' Suits and Coats, call at our store, 3 E. Pikes Peak avenue, and examine some of our marvelous offerings.

FOUR CHILDREN BURN TO DEATH IN CLEVELAND FIRE

CLEVELAND, Dec. 29.—Four children of August Mazzio were burned to death tonight in a fire which destroyed Mazzio's home here. The mother and one son were so seriously burned that it is feared they will die.

The fire started in Mazzio's bakery in the rear of his home. The entire front of the house was in flames when the firemen arrived, but the mother and son, who were groping about in a front room, were dragged out. The bodies of the other four children were found in a room directly behind this.

Mazzio was overcome by the shock and had to be rescued from the fire by neighbors.

WRECKED TORPEDO BOAT TOWED INTO NAVY YARD

Lieut. Commander W. M. Hunt of Washington Describes Accident Which Nearly Cost Several Lives

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 29.—Looking as though she had been under fire, the torpedo boat destroyer, Warrington, which was damaged by a schooner 29 miles below Cape Hatteras yesterday morning, reached the navy yard tonight in tow of the tug Albatross and Wahkiakum.

The collision occurred when most of the men were asleep and they were thrown out of their hammocks by the impact. A reached the dock in time to save the outlines of a schooner pulling away from us. She appeared to have all sails set.

Six men were sleeping in the compartment aft and they were thrown out of their hammocks and into the water. In the next compartment there were 20 men asleep and they had to be wakened to get through the thrashing seas.

Gunner's Mate J. M. Stanley and Chief Gunner's Mate J. M. Brouder were injured.

The bulkheads held perfectly, and after we got our bearings, we knew we would remain afloat for at least some time. In the meantime the revenue cutter Onondaga reached us. The storm was still raging and we decided it would be better to take off the greater portions of our crew.

The transfer to the Onondaga was made by life boats and was accompanied with some danger. We used oil in large quantities to calm the sea and this helped us a great deal.

Twelve members of the crew, Lieut. W. M. Hunt, Ensign J. B. Stiles, and myself remained on board the Warrington to work the pumps.

Lieutenant Commander Hunt, said Lieutenant Williamson and Chief Gunner's Mate G. J. Donnelly risked their lives to save several shipmates from being washed into the sea when a portion of the ship was torn away.

At three o'clock yesterday five sunk off Hatteras, according to a report by wireless from the liner Cretan. Nothing was said of the crew. The Cretan's message said the schooner lay about 10 miles off Cape Hatteras and that only her topmasts were showing. There is no doubt as to the identity of the vessel but it is thought it may be the vessel that ran foul of the Warrington.

CHINESE ADMIT THAT DR. SUN IS COUNTRY'S HOPE

SHANGHAI, Dec. 29.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen, after having received a definite report of his election to the presidency of the republic of China, by the delegates of the 16 provinces in convention at Nanking, spent the afternoon here in close conference with his advisers.

There is a reason to believe the personnel of the cabinet will be announced almost immediately.

Among those selected is Chen Chin Tao, who has accepted the portfolio of minister of finance. He came here with Tang Shao Yi, the representative of Yuan Shi Kai, and previously had refused the post of vice president of the board of finance in Yuan Shi Kai's cabinet. He is acting in the negotiations for a currency loan. It is an open secret that Sun Yat Sen offered the foreign ministry to Tang Shao Yi, who declined to enter the first cabinet. It is believed, however, that his name will be found on the next page of the history of the reorganization of China. The president will select General Li Yuan Heng as minister of war.

After the selection of the cabinet, the policy of the new government, offer terms to the Manchus for restoring order throughout the country, encourage the reopening of trade everywhere, and guarantee the safety and protection of foreigners. Within a day or two President Sun will move to Nanking, where all official business will be transacted.

The Associated Press is assured that it is not the intention of reform leaders to press decentralization, but, on the contrary, a strong central government, ultimately, will be formed. The present government practically is a military dictatorship, and there is every evidence that Dr. Sun is the most competent man available to head it, as he appears absolutely in control of all factions, from students to conservatives. He also is a central figure in the secret societies in China, which have a membership of 30,000,000.

The North China News, the leading newspaper in China, and hitherto a supporter of the imperialists, acknowledges that Dr. Sun is the present hope of China. The newspaper accepts the republic and concedes the abrogation of the court, as it seems the final phase of the history of China. "A new era," says the paper, "opens with 1912."

The Associated Press has reason to believe that within a short time the personnel of the prime movers for reform in China will be completely changed under President Sun.

ROOSEVELT MUST STAND AS A CANDIDATE IN NEBRASKA

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 29.—Theodore Roosevelt cannot escape standing as a candidate for the nomination for president, according to a ruling made today by Secretary of State Walter.

He said Mr. Roosevelt's name would remain on primary election ballots unless John C. Yeager of Omaha, withdrew the petition withdrawn by him.

The ruling is supplementary to one made by the secretary at the time of the filing and is in anticipation of an expected petition placing the name of W. J. Bryan on the ballot as an independent candidate.

News reached Secretary Waite that such a petition was being prepared.

"If it is filed as expected, it will affect Mr. Bryan's candidacy as a delegate-at-large to the Democratic national convention," he said.

Backbone of Representative Government Is the Direct Primary, Says La Follette

NORTH BALTIMORE, O., Dec. 29.—Denunciation of the supreme court's decision in the standard oil and American Tobacco trust cases and of the Republican National committee for its failure to order a presidential primary in those states where such procedure would not be illegal marked the speech here today of Senator La Follette, who is coming Ohio to furtherance of a campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

The senator declared that the court's ruling as to "reasonable restraint of trade" was a usurpation of power. He said he was not a "backbone Republican" and would join any party which would give to every voter the means of directly expressing his choice for candidates to go upon his party ticket, from president to coroner.

Senator La Follette charged the National Republican committee with making rules that "will make the Republican national convention a machine run convention."

"We are fighting this thing and will continue to fight it until in every state primaries will be provided by law which will give to every voter the means of directly expressing his choice for candidates to go upon his party ticket, from president to coroner."

FAMOUS WILL CASE IS TO BE REOPENED

BOSTON, Dec. 29.—The famous Russell will case is to be reopened. Leslie A. Stimpson of Dickinson, N. D., counsel for the North Dakota plaintiffs who claim to be the long-lost son of the late Daniel Russell of Melrose, and entitled to a share of the latter's estate valued at $750,000, arrived here today to push an appeal to the supreme court from the decision rendered two years ago by Judge Lavton.

This decision held in effect that "Dakota Dan" as the claimant is known, is an impostor.

While "Dakota Dan" through his attorneys, continues his fight, there is living in the Russell homestead in Melrose a man whom William C. Russell, the oldest son of the testator, has recognized as his 1966-year-old brother, Daniel Blake Russell.

This man is familiarly known as "Frank Dan" having come here near the close of the trial from Fresno, Cal., where he had been living under another name.

MISSING DENVER BOY LOCATED IN DURANGO

DENVER, Dec. 29.—Ralph Crabb has been found. The news was received by Prof. J. N. Crabb, father of the boy, who has been missing since December 1, in the following telegram: "Durango, Colo., Dec. 28."

Jack, Denver, Colo.

"Ralph Crabb is here with friends safe and well. (Signed) J. N. Crabb."

In the opinion of Professor Crabb who has charge of the commercial department of the Denver High school and his wife, Mrs. Eva Crabb, Ralph went away and sought employment because he thought he was a burden on his parents.

"Ralph, although only 17 years, was a serious-minded young man. I know he is an impostor."

This is the day of concentrated mental effort. Much of this effort, regrettably, depends for its success on an injured vision. Nor is there anything so completely unnecessary as that same common eye-sure optical science has eliminated success. It is possible for the expert optical instrument equipped with testing instruments, to determine, without question, just what degree of error is to be found in the defective eye and to correct it with the right lens. The chief of our Optical Department performs this operation many times every day.

POLICE STUMBLE ONTO

HIDING PLACE OF LOOT

Search warrants were issued yesterday from Justice Goudy's court, and Frank and Joe Kopetsky, 941 South Tejon street, were taken to the county jail where they are held on charges of burglary and larceny. The Kopetskys are suspected of having robbed a grocery store on Mill street a few nights ago, and when they were investigated a miscellaneous collection of carpenter's tools, worth several hundred dollars, came under the eye of the authorities. More tools were found at the house yesterday.

It was through the checking up of the Kopetskys that the police stumbled onto the hiding place of several hundred dollars' worth of furniture, wearing apparel that disappeared mysteriously from the furniture cleaning establishment weeks ago. The Kopetskys claimed to have bought some of their tools from Gus Hunsinger, whose address until recently was at South Weber street. There was a merry dash on the part of the sleuths for Hunsinger's house, but the man, Mr. Hunsinger, had departed for parts unknown.

Alta exclaimed the show force of sleuths, maybe there is a loose stone in the basement wall. Why is a loose stone? Shush! Well, investigation closed.

LOW RATES TO STOCK SHOW

There is more than usual interest in Colorado Springs over the coming National Western Stock show to be held in Denver during the week of January 15-20. This show has grown to be the big agricultural event of the west and every year is becoming more national in character, although designed more particularly to encourage the development of the stock and agricultural interests in the intermountain country.

Denver and Springs Are After National Meeting

Both Denver and Colorado Springs are striving to secure the next convention of the American Passenger Agents association now in session at Jacksonville, Fla., and the delegation from Denver is working to have the next convention place named as Denver or Colorado Springs. The local Chamber of Commerce has entered into the campaign and Secretary Henderson believes that this city has a good chance of getting the convention. About 400 delegates attend the meetings and the advertising received is considered a big feature in favor of the convention city. The election of next year's convention city probably will be held today.

SUNSHINE SERVICE Asks for $2,500 and Cancellation Notes

W. Wagoner filed suit in the district court yesterday in which he asks that the Fountain Valley Land and Irrigation company be ordered to pay him $2,500 that certain contracts and notes be canceled and surrendered and such other relief as the court may deem just. He alleges a contract with defendant for the purchase of 60 acres of land and certain water rights in El Paso county, the purchase price being set forth as $8,220. The amount, he said, was to be paid between March, 1911 and January, 1912. Wagoner alleges the company has failed to furnish an abstract to the land and also that the title is not clear. According to the complaint a contract was entered into between the two parties October 21, 1910.

COL. LEWIS GINGER WEDS MRS. BERTHA P. HAFNER

Those little delicacies sometimes known as snobs, that are doughnuts, helped sing this ditty deep into the love organ of old Lewis Ginger for 20 years of silent love. This city and nation indirectly in his marriage to Mrs. Bertha P. Hafner, formerly looking after of Los Angeles. The wedding took place December 29 according to word received from the bride from Colorado Springs.

It was while at Denver attending legislature, being a representative from El Paso county that the romance began. Mrs. Hafner was demonstrating the fine art of cooking at the house of a friend. The colonel walked into the kitchen and partook of one of the snobs. Immediately he sought the hand which had mixed the flour and other things in order to make such a delightful morsel. Then cupid's arrow flew, but the idea of matrimony was not at all in the colonel's mind until his trip to Los Angeles early in December. Then—well, they just got married.

Colonel Ginger is 65 years of age and has been identified with scenic amusement projects in this region and Los Angeles for some time. He is president of a company which seeks to start a scenic road up Cheyenne mountain. The colonel's trip to Los Angeles was in order to perfect a scheme for a scenic railway project up Mt. Wilson. Colonel Ginger's first wife died in the city several years ago. He has a daughter in New York and a son in Portland Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Ginger probably will remain in Los Angeles.

INTELLIGENCE TO RE INFUSED INTO POLICE

There is a chance that the Colorado Springs Police Department may make good. An was the intelligence of Chief Purdie and his associated staff is to be supplemented by that of several stars. They are to be brought here by Mr. Morrison, formerly of Moundsville, W. Va., but now a resident of this city who has offered the department a number of trained bloodhounds.

To quote from a local paper last evening: "The police department is delighted at the prospect of having some bloodhounds. It is not known when the manhunters will arrive or how many. Last but not least, the chief clerk referred to in the article.

Mr. Morrison for many years was a police officer and during his residence in the south had frequent occasion to use bloodhounds in tracking criminals. He intends to make his home in Colorado Springs indefinitely and says that he will gladly offer his dogs for the purpose here as well as in other parts of the state, when ever desired.

PROPERTY OWNERS

WE IMPROVED the ornamental trimmings on the Antlers hotel. We transformed the stone work on the Rio Grande depot to a thing of beauty. We are now bringing out the true color of the stone on The Gazette building. The Sand-blast cleaning done here so far has been very satisfactory to the owners of the buildings and the improvement has justified the expenditure many times. The exterior appearance of a building gives one the impression of the interior and is an index to the finish within. You paint your houses for appearances as much as for a preservative. A great many people imagine the Sand-blast cleaning process is an expensive proposition but it is one of the modern inventions which has reduced the cost of building improvements. The process is the only practical way to clean stone and the results obtained are more satisfactory than any way so far put in practice. We are not trying to talk you into something you don't want. We simply want to present our proposition and then it's up to you to decide. You know whether your building needs cleaning, you know whether it is worth cleaning, you know whether you can afford it or not. Let us submit you a proposition. The increased value improvement in dollars and cents will reduce the cost of our work to nothing. Inquiries solicited.

MAJOR LEAGUES WANT BEST HITTING MINORS

TIN FARS DO NOT GROW ON FIGHTERS IN ARENA

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 29.—Baseball, perhaps, never had a more unique character than Kid Gleason, who is to be sent to the White Sox, the manager of the White Sox, at season's end. Many tales are told of Gleason, but here are some that dropped during a recent, lulling day in the White Sox's dressing room.

I see where Charlie Comiskey has sent Kid Gleason to Chicago and he'll make the White Sox next year," said Jimmy Burke to "Lucky" Lefty.

I take it from Mr. Comiskey's remarks that he'll earn his salary, replied the Pittsburgher. "Gleason is one of the hardest men in the game, and the hardest guy that ever put on a uniform. They say he can whip any man in the National league. I saw him go for Fred Clarke in Pittsburgh one day. Gleason was pitching to the Phillies, and Clarke was batting. He walked on the field and started to josh the veteran.

Look out or you'll get a link in that dead-end chain," called out Gleason.

"Think you're some kiddie," retorted Gleason, as he wheeled and drew the ball at Clarke's head. Fred looked at the pitcher and he called into the grandstand, hitting a receiver in the left of the stomach and doubling him up like a huge fighter taking the count. "I want the Pittsburgh club, a piece of change to square the matter."

"That ain't a marker to the trick," Gleason played on. Mike Grady, the "kiss" veteran catcher, declared Jimmy Burke, "Gleason and Grady were roommates one year. One night the two were playing with stones at a pitcher and bowl hotel. You know a pitcher and bowl establishment is an old-fashioned hotel, without running water in the rooms. They have a bathtub in the back yard, and leave a pitcher full of water and a wash bowl a each room every night.

"Who are you trying to hit it into?" said Bob Conner, manager of the Hartford, Conn. club, who was standing by. "Think we didn't have up-to-date boarding houses on our circuit, eh?"

"Pardon me, no offense meant," replied Burke. "I was going to tell you how Gleason smashed a big porcelain pitcher over Grady's head. One night Mike and the 'Kid' had a joshing match, and Michael Angelo said something that stung Gleason pretty hard. The 'Kid' grabbed the water pitcher and smacked it over Grady's head.

"He must have liked hard spot, because it never phased Grady, who winked his eye and apologized to the 'Kid'.

"Kid" Gleason, Frank Gooden and "Kitty" Bransfield are credited with being the best rough-and-tumble fighters in the national game. All the bad men of baseball give this trio a wide berth.

Would Abolish Training Table

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The abolition of the training table, and the institution of compulsory physical examinations for students entering college were urged today at the annual meeting of the Society of Directors of Physical Education, attended by 25 delegates of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

A sharp, far-reaching division of opinion as to the question of abolishing the training table developed, most of the Western representatives being strongly in favor of the proposition and those of the Eastern institutions strongly opposed to it.

Dr. Joseph P. Overholt, formerly of the University of Chicago, said that when the training table had been first abolished in Western institutions he was opposed to it, but that since that time he had found that the results all around were better.

Physical entrance examinations were advocated by Dr. James Abbott of Haverford, "not as a gymnastic test, but to enable the student to measure up to the physical standard necessary to pursue his studies."

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—Jack Johnson, champion, and Sam McVea will fight for the heavyweight championship of the world at Sydney, Australia, Easter Monday. If Hugh McIntosh, the Sydney promoter, approves, the agreement made here today by his representative and Johnson.

Tom Andrews of Milwaukee, McIntosh's American representative, agreed to give Johnson $30,000, win, lose or draw, $3,000 training expenses, and four round-trip tickets to Australia. Johnson agreed to fight with these provisions.

McVea is the logical candidate, said Johnson. "He got his place by beating Sam Langford, a scoundrel in six rounds. However, and another thing, he cleaned him at the end of 20 rounds. He will be the soft for me now. I won't take much training, but I am going in fit, so as not to be surprised. I'll begin work at once."

McVea will be accompanied by a large party of friends from Melbourne immediately.

GRIFFITH THINKS SLOW BALL IS MOST DECEPTIVE

To Clark Griffith's mind, there is nothing as important in a pitcher's makeup as his ability to pitch a deceptive, slow ball. As a deliverer of this deceptive and tantalizing delivery no one ever was more expert than the manager of the Nationals, during the days that he was numbered among the star pitchers of the major leagues.

Now there is a great difference in slow balls. "You have probably noticed," said Griffith, "that some pitchers' slow ball is the closest kind of flicking for the batters. That principally is due to the fact that the ball arches after it leaves the pitcher's hand and is en route toward the plate. This gives the batter a chance to gauge the ball before it gets near him, and of course it is the easiest thing in the world to hit. But the kind of a slow ball that baffles the batter is the one which goes on a straight line toward the plate and cannot be detected from a straight fast one until it is too late for the batter. That is the kind of a slow one I had and was responsible for my success as a pitcher.

"Now it is not easy for the average pitcher to get this ball down to a nifty, but I shall put all my pitchers to work on it. I'll wager that those who learn the art will win a successful next season."

CLEVELAND, Dec. 29.—There is no denying the fact that the big league scouts keep nightly close tabs on the averages of minor-league players, particularly from time to time. At least such appears to be the case, judging from the number of champions who were brought, and drafted, by the major leagues during the last mid-winter. About half of the pitching leaders were taken on by the big leagues. While a big part of the champion batters were also annexed.

Cleveland gets Ryan, the champion pitcher of the Pacific Coast league, while Cleveland, the champion pitcher of the American Association, goes to the Philadelphia Athletics.

In the Kitty League, Smith of Nashville and Pratt of Montgomery were practically tied for the batting honors in the Southern league. Smith goes to Brooklyn and Pratt to the Braves. The New York Giants get two champions. Bues of the Northwestern league and Johnson of the Three-leagues. Holbrook of the Central association heads with the White Sox, while the Cardinals get Block of the Virginia league.

When it came to championship hitters, Cleveland grabbed two in Stoen of the Pacific Coast league and Schall of the Southern league of the Carolina association. The Browns acquired Wolfenbarger, who led the runners in the New England league, with 27 victories, and only five defeats, and Baumgardner, the leader in the Mountain league. McClellan of the Eastern league will deny his status from the New York Yankees, while Hevlik, the Three-I leader, has already been tried by the White Sox.

The National league failed to get such a heavy load of champions. Chicago took Northrop of the Tri-State, three of the Union association and Stanback of the Wisconsin-Illinois league. Most of the Southern league goes to Boston, while Cincinnati took Lloyd, the leader in the Central association.

But there were a number of batters and pitchers who led their leagues who failed to advance. Among them were the leading pitchers of the Central, Blue, Green, and State. Southern, Michigan, Virginia and Western Canadian leagues and the champion batters of the Carolina, Central, Western, Connecticut, Tri-State, and Cotton states leagues.

The South Atlantic league has promulgated the most remarkable set of rules governing its next year's season in the history of baseball. In the first place, the league takes no stand against "chasebacks," and rules that no player who has played in games in the league of higher classification as eligible to play in the "B" league. In the case of a pitcher or catcher, none who has played 10 games in the league higher up is eligible. Then, again, no player who played in that league last season and showed more than 150 at-bats will be allowed to play.

This is unique, especially the condition that a player, who played in the class A or B leagues should adopt suitable regulations. What would become of the veterans of the game who find themselves shipping and unloading at 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 943, 944, 945, 946, 947, 948, 949, 950, 951, 952, 953, 954, 955, 956, 957, 958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 963, 964, 965, 966, 967, 968, 969, 970, 971, 972, 973, 974, 975, 976, 977, 978, 979, 980, 981, 982, 983, 984, 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, 990, 991, 992, 993, 994, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000.

Then, again, no player who played in that league last season and showed more than 150 at-bats will be allowed to play.

This is unique, especially the condition that a player, who played in the class A or B leagues should adopt suitable regulations. What would become of the veterans of the game who find themselves shipping and unloading at 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 80

STREET LIGHTING

SINCE the iron poles with cluster lights were placed in front of the new Burns theater building Colorado Springs people have had a better opportunity to estimate the value of this form of street illumination. The subject is of special interest because, as is generally known, the installation of this system throughout the entire business district was a part of Commissioner Lawton's original scheme of street improvement, which includes paving and the widening of the sidewalks.

In most up-to-date cities street lighting by means of arc lamps placed at the corners is an out-of-date system. It is still necessary in residential districts, but on the business streets of progressive cities the lighting is done with the improved type of incandescent lamps arranged in clusters on poles placed 80 or 100 feet apart along the curb line. This insures a more even distribution of the light. Instead of the blinding glare of a single arc placed high above the street at each corner, and leaving the middle of the block in comparative darkness, the thoroughfare is illuminated evenly throughout its distance. Another advantage is that the light is thrown down on the sidewalk, where it is needed, instead of toward the sky or down on the middle of the street, where it is wasted.

Of course all modern improvements cost money. A few generations back our forefathers thought it an expensive luxury to maintain oil lamps on the streets, and some of them preferred to carry lanterns instead. But their successors in the next generation had to pay even more for the vastly better illumination furnished by the gas street lamps. Then came the first electric lights, still better and still costlier. Now in the incandescent lamps arranged in clusters along the curb industrial science has provided a means of street illumination which is as nearly perfect as we can hope for for many years at least.

Here in Colorado Springs we like to regard ourselves as a progressive, up-to-date community, but it must be admitted that there are certain matters in which we have fallen behind the procession. The adequate lighting of our business district is one of them. We still cling to the old-fashioned method of placing an arc lamp at each street intersection and trusting to the light supplied by electric signs and store windows to enable pedestrians to find their way along the otherwise gloomy space in the middle of each block. Thanks to the energy of the Chamber of Commerce this condition was partly remedied last summer by the installation of numerous electric streamers and draperies, but these are for use only during the summer. They were in service for a few nights recently immediately preceding Christmas, but they will not be turned on again until summer. This fact only serves to emphasize the necessity of installing an adequate system of permanent street lighting.

In the business district of Colorado Springs, and especially on Tejon and Huerfano streets and Pikes Peak avenue, we ought to have iron poles of ornamental design placed along the curb at from 80 to 100 feet apart. In addition to carrying a cluster of incandescent lamps these poles would have extension tops to support the trolley wires, like the two larger poles now placed before the Burns theater. This would make possible the removal of all of the wooden poles which are now the most unsightly feature of the street view. We would not only dispense with something extremely ugly, but would supplant it with something decidedly attractive.

Of course the iron poles will cost money, but it is well to remember that everything which is really worth having is costly in the beginning. In the long run the iron poles would be cheaper, for once installed they would last forever, whereas wooden poles must be replaced frequently. Apart from this purely material consideration the investment would be profitable because it would transform the appearance of the streets, adding immeasurably to their attractiveness.

We who live in Colorado Springs ought to realize fully the importance to our own welfare of keeping the city perpetually "dressed up." A city which depends for its support on the patronage of pleasure-seekers simply cannot afford to permit itself to be seen in its old clothes. It cannot afford to be slovenly and untidy even when it is not expecting visitors, for visitors may come unannounced. Colorado Springs ought to wear holiday attire every day in the year. That is, it ought to present such an appearance as will instantly impress its visitors with its beauty and attractiveness. Everybody recognizes the magical effect of light; no other proof is needed than the instinctive readiness with which everybody turns to a brilliantly illuminated street rather than to one shrouded in darkness.

The business men of Colorado Springs should not let the present opportunity pass. A system of street lighting by means of cluster lamps supported on iron poles along the curb ought to be installed next spring when the paving is laid, for then the sidewalks will be widened and the work could be done with less trouble and expense than later on, when it would be necessary to cut holes in the cement walks. While we are in the business of making public improvements it is better to make them thoroughly than to leave the job half finished.

AS TO CLEAN SIDEWALKS

SAYS our twilight contemporary:

We are glad to join with The Gazette in its crusade for clean sidewalks during this wintry weather.

There is an old saying that the streets of Jerusalem were kept clean because every man swept in front of his own doorway; and we know of a man not a thousand miles from this office who shipped this week and nearly fell on the icy sidewalk in front of the palatial mansion in which the editor of The Gazette makes his abode. We trust that this will not occur again.

We cannot assume responsibility for the safety of any individual who, for one reason or another, may be unable to navigate a perfectly clean eight-foot sidewalk in safety. The walk in question is, and has been, kept free of snow. It is this statement is not true, why don't the police arrest the individual responsible for its condition?

Incidentally, what authority is there for this reference to street cleaning methods in Jerusalem? We supposed that the method was peculiar to Rome.

OPEN PARLIAMENT

MILK DELIVERIES.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

Purchase we wake up on a cold, dark morning and wonder with a little shiver if it is time to get up. Soon we hear the clock strike two, or three, and how delicious it is to yawn and sleep again. Just as we are dropping off we hear steps and eyes and ears open wide, and the hair may rise on our head as the thought of burglars sets our nerves tingling. But a moment's thought convinces us that it is only the milkman making his nightly round. We are wide awake now and wonder why does the milkman have to be out in the dark, cold, freezing night? If he gets chilled there is no house open to let him in to warm, no woman up to give him a cup of coffee.

How would you like to be the milkman and rise early enough to start out on your route at half-past twelve? Even when it is not very cold, it is dark and it is lonely. Besides, they do not get the necessary sleep. Sleep in the daytime is not so long or so sound or so restful. Light and noise forbid. If it is not necessary, why require them to do their work in discomfort and suffering?

We bring in the milk for breakfast, and there it is frozen and sticking up an inch or two out of the bottle. "Will you have a slice of cream for your coffee, or shall I melt it for you?" Sometimes, instead of projecting from the bottle, we find the cover off and the milk is depressed and congealed. That means only that some cat or dog has licked it.

Why is it necessary for milk to be delivered before breakfast? It is only from the day before, anyway, and we can keep it just as well as the day after. If the milkman started out at 5 o'clock they could deliver that day's milk and we could keep enough over for next morning. They say that the milkman demands a delivery of milk before breakfast. This city having been spoiled by always having it. Let us who are the public, change our opinion and be willing to have a delivery, as they do in many cities. Then when we wake up in the night and remember that our milk is on the pantry shelf and the milkman is sleeping in a comfortable bed, where he ought to be, we can turn over and go to sleep with great enjoyment, having a good conscience and the blessing of all the milkmen.

FROM OTHER PENS

THE STORY OF A GREAT TRAGEDY

From the New York Mail.

The truth about the disaster at Austin has come out in the judicial inquiry into the disaster. It is a short and simple story—a tragedy told in a few words.

In 1909 the Bayless Pulp and Paper company built a big concrete dam across Paperman's creek near Austin. It was made of good concrete, but this concrete was laid upon a smooth rock in such a way that in January, 1910, it slipped 18 inches at the bottom, under the enormous pressure. Cracks resulted, and the water came through.

The dam from the moment was highly unsafe. The cap of it was blown off with dynamite to relieve the pressure. This did it harm, rather than good. The dam was a terrible menace every day and hour.

The engineers reported that a cutoff wall should be raised behind the dam, and the action made secure. But this was not done. The thing remained, through somebody's neglect, as it was, nearly two years.

And then, on the last day of September last, the dam broke; the water, which was 47 feet deep, poured through in a mass. The town of Austin was overwhelmed, and 160 lives were lost.

The coroner's jury at Austin has now placed upon the officers of the Bayless company the charge of negligence of their duty in this matter, and they must tell in court, and before all the world, whether they had guilty knowledge of the menace that was permitted.

An end has come to the time when the owners of business plants of any sort can with impunity show indifference to the safety of the lives of the people.

OUR CAPABLE EXECUTIVE

B. L. T. in the Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Taft has been rather sharply criticized since he took office. He had a difficult task to perform, and in performing it he has made enemies—many whose ill will is better than their good. But, after allowing for the difference in temperament between him and his predecessor and for a habit of mind acquired through long training in the law, it will, we believe, be freely admitted that, taking him by and large, up and down around and about, and to and fro, we have never had a president who laid a cornerstone any better than William Howard Taft.

MODERN CHINA

From the Providence Evening Bulletin.

The occidentalization of China proceeds by leaps and bounds. Now it is an equipment in which a princess and an actor figure. Only for the turn of events of Asiatic action it would be a prince and an actress.

From the Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

"That story about the mother of the emperor of China eloping with an actor may be a campaign life from the Springfield Union.

Being a Manchus in China must seem a good deal like being a Republican in Texas.

From the Newark Star.

Chinese baby emperor's mother has eloped with an actor. This ought to leave the kid open for an engagement. Here's a hint to Asbury Park for next summer's carnival.

From the Columbus (O.) State Journal.

Things have reached the point in China where probably the Manchus are around explaining that they've really always been progressives at heart.

From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

If those installed Chinese revolutionists would only wear light trousers they'd look like The Spirit of '76.

Sunflower Philosophy

What immeditations have been hurried at this poor misbegotten world by human failures, short of hope, who've reached the end of all their rope! A thousand young men you may see, who waste each opportunity, who give their days to

THIS WORLD cheap delights, and hold high wassail through the night, and when departed is life's morn, and they are poor and sick and worn, they'll curse the poor world to its face, and say it is a mean, old place. A thousand others you may find who do not like the beastly grind; they do not care to earn their bread by honest toil, and so, instead, they take the path of vice and crime, and when at last they're doing time with seamy clothes upon their backs, they breathe abuses and alacks; they curse the world up hill and down and say it always wears a frown. But honest men who earn their ples by methods safe and sane and wise, the men who work for all they get and bathe their earnings with their sweat, all say the world that we in fest will stack up with the very best.

THE CHIT CHAT

BY RUTH CAMERON CHAT

It is written of Robert Louis Stevenson, that on seeing a dog misbehave, he at once interrupted and when the owner presented his interference and told him, "It's not your dog," he cried out, "It's God's dog, and I'm here to protect it."

I have been wondering today if we—that is, you and I and all the other women who cannot bear that there shall be unnecessary suffering in the world, even among the dumb brutes—cannot do something to protect God's delivery horses.

As I sat at my window this morning, I saw at least half a dozen delivery wagons of various kinds, so by and by a rattling pace—sometimes a fast trot, sometimes a pathetically feeble gallop. Two or three stopped within my line of vision and I watched the horses stand panting, and sometimes even trembling and shivering, while the boy went into the house, and saw them lashed into a gallop again as soon as the boy had clambered back into his seat.

Two, or three, of the horses were very old. One was a light carriage horse that should never have been put into a heavy delivery team at all. Now their long routes and cold, sharp, even if they are allowed to go at a reasonable pace, but perpetual hurry breaks down a horse's wind, quickly than it does a man and it was evident that these poor, hounded animals were suffering cruelly from the continual strain.

Now, surely if you are enough interested in animals to notice them at all you must have seen similar conditions.

You admit it, but you don't see any possible way you could help prevent such conditions.

I am not so sure of that.

I can think of one simple way at once. Some of these boys were driving their horses at such a wicked speed, because they enjoyed it, or because they weren't given time enough to cover their round at a reasonable pace. But some of them were rushing because they had to fill some hurry order. Madame had forgotten to give her order until just before lunch, and had rushed the driver when she finally did telephone him to "send it up just as quick as possible, please." And it was to nullify the effects of her forgetfulness that some poor tired horse was forced into a gallop.

That's one self-evident way you can take care of God's delivery horses, isn't it?

Order at the proper time and if you forget, taking the consequences of your own forgetfulness, and not asking some poor animal to suffer.

And here's another way. (Can't you speak to the boy who delivers your groceries, if you see him after driving his horse? Tell him you don't want your groceries brought up by ill-treated animals. Tell him you spoke to him first to give him a fair chance, but if he doesn't do better, you'll speak to his employer.)

A great many times I think the employer would be more indignant than anybody if he knew how his horses were treated, for good horses are expensive things, and he can't afford to have them wastefully used.

But when you suggest that the fault lies with the employer's shortsightedness and cruelty, can't you have the courage to speak directly to him and even use the box of your trade as a club to club a little decency and humanity into him?

You think he would say the horses were his, and that you were interfering in what was none of your business.

Perhaps so. But surely you'd know what report to make to that.

The Great Conflict

A Half Century Ago To-day

DECEMBER 30, 1891.

The secretary of the treasury of the Confederate states, in his correspondence with the Tennessee delegation in the Confederate congress, announced the inability of the Confederate government to reimburse Tennessee for the sums expended by the state in defense of the Confederacy.

Messrs. Thomas and Burnett of Kentucky were sworn in as members of the Confederate congress and took their seats as representatives of their state. They were chosen by the provisional government.

Acting Master Alvin Allen and Acting Master Henry Sturgess of the U. S. S. Mount Vernon were sent in a cutter and a kic to destroy a Confederate lightship in use off Wilmington, N. C. They found the lightship deserted, although placed for guns and almost prepared for harbor defense. The vessel was fired, and the members of the expedition escaped through the fire of Confederate batteries that opened on them.

The Richmond Examiner printed a bitter editorial in the paper of date, excoriating judges of Richmond for calling on a Dr. King from Newport, R. I., who had been permitted to go to Richmond to take care of his sick son, a prisoner of war. The paper speaks of the attentions of the ladies as "dirty tenderness."

The original legal tender bill was introduced in the house of representatives of the United States congress by E. G. Spaulding of New York. The banks of Philadelphia, New York and Boston suspended specie payments.

From all over the state there will be a large attendance at the "Farmers' Week" to be held during the week of January 8, and at the National Western stock show in Denver, the following week.

The Colorado & Southern railway announces special low rates for these occasions. The big stock show in Denver will draw unusually large crowds as it is reported the show will be the largest ever held.

THE OUTSIDER

They wanted the prettiest china. But they didn't ask for mine. That was for the minister's party. They wanted everything fine.

They wanted the nicest silver. Mine's sterling, every bit. It has all yellow and tarnished. For why should I brighten it?

They wanted the lightest biscuit. The hand and the heart of me aches. When I think of my roomy oven. And the wonderful way it bakes.

They wanted all the good people. That cut me most like a knife. You see, 'twas the minister's party. And I'm the saloon keeper's wife.

From behind my kitchen curtain, I could see them laughing. Say, there are roads in this world lots harder Than their 'straits and narrow way.

I know how they hold me. But tell me, Is it sinful to keep the yoke?

That I made that sweet June evening, As I stood in my father's house.

Oh, well, they're there and I'm here. And it's no use to sit and whine. Still, they wanted the prettiest china. And they didn't ask for mine.

—Annie Russell McCollum, in the Independent.

RISE AND FALL

From Exchange.

A boy was driving along a road in Ireland a donkey and cart which he longed to his widowed mother when he was accosted by a snobbish young man, who, wishing to impress his cleverness upon a young lady who accompanied him, said, "Watch me take a rise out of this donkey."

He shouted to the boy, "I say, do you think your mother would sell me that donkey?"

The boy looked good look at him and answered, "Do you think your mother could keep two?"

The smart young man didn't laugh, but the young lady did.

100 MUCH FOR ELIZABETH

From Lippincott's.

Little Elizabeth and her mother were having luncheon together, and the mother, who always tried to impress facts upon her young daughter, said: "These little sardines, Elizabeth, are sometimes eaten by the larger fish."

Elizabeth gazed at the sardines in wonder, and then asked: "But, mother, how do the large fish get the sardines?"

IN THE EARLY DAYS

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

DECEMBER 30, 1881.

Dr. W. A. Bell and family returned from a trip to England. Dr. Bell was one of General Palmer's business associates and lived for many years at Marlborough, in Manito.

C. A. Eldridge returned after an absence of several months.

Several of the visiting teachers took a drive through the Garden of the Gods and Manitou, starting at 6 o'clock in the morning and getting back in time to be at the opening of the teachers' institute at 9.30.

Clarence Edsall returned from a business trip to the east. He was then a member of the firm of Prouditt & Edsall, mining brokers.

Dodging Heiresses

(Copyrighted, 1911, by Laura Jean Libbey.)

It isn't with the young man who is so anxious to make his way in the world that he would marry money that this article has to do. It is to point out the troubles of a man with money who is angied for by heiresses, who have need for him, financially, whom he is constantly dodging. There are many sensible men who believe that not all of the richest flowers bloom in the rosebud garden of girls; that the modest, wide-eyed violet, flattered by the side of a lonely path, is sweeter by far.

Heiresses invite only the men of their social sets to their drawing rooms and society gatherings. The clerk in a girl's father's office, even the far superior nobler in heart and principle to that of the millionaire. The clerk could love her for herself alone, despite her wealth. The millionaire wonders how long it will be ere he grows weary of her.

Even the heiresses find great difficulty in winning the right kind of a lover. If more instances than the world suspects those whom they can get they don't want, and those who want them they sometimes would not have. In many an instance a girl would choose rightly if the choice were only left to her. But the grim old father and mother of the petted heiress cannot conceive of her taking a poor young man. He forgets that hearts are drawn towards each other irrespective of the almighty dollar. He shrugs his eyes to the fact that wealth too often brings its possessors unhappiness. They have so many alluring enjoyments outside of the home that it becomes a second nature to revel in them. Outside companionship seems the only delight worth living for.

It is not always that those in the higher walks of life are suited for each other. They may be as unacquainted and far apart as the cold moon beams and the fiery sun's rays. Many a poor girl would have been better fitted to preside over his table as his wife had he succeeded in dodging an heiress who had successfully set her cap for him.

Most heiresses tread upon life's rose leaves. They are not used to denying themselves any pleasure or gratification for another's sake. The poor girl is accustomed to making every sacrifice. It is the joy of her heart to do this for the one she loves.

No, doubt heiresses possess good points, but they do not possess all of them. I am thankful to say. Heiresses are not always successful in winning a wealthy young man whom they might fancy. When they send him invitations, which he dodges, they ought to realize that there is a good reason for his absence. He may be one of the many whose preference for love is a poor girl. Her mode of living, her pleasures may not appeal to him, as calculated for future happiness. He acts the nobler part when he does not encourage her, but pleads a pressing engagement. Thus it will be seen that poor girls who think that only heiresses win love are decidedly mistaken.

Colorado City DEPARTMENT

TO DISCUSS REST ROOM

The council committee on public buildings will meet with the library at the library this afternoon at 2 o'clock to discuss the proposed rest room at the library. This is the result of the resolution submitted to the council at its last meeting by J. Duncan Lamont, acting for the man's study club of Colorado City, a proposed to fit up two or more rooms in the basement of the library, public rest rooms for men and women, and the study club has made a thorough investigation of the proposition, showing that it can be carried out even displaying some rough drawings that explain just what is wanted, meeting this afternoon will be for purpose of discussing the practicality of the plan and investigating the cost as to probable expense.

The rest room idea has been agitated in Colorado City for some time, but without result. Many of the most prominent citizens have given the matter consideration since it has been proposed by the Woman's Study Club, and a majority of the residents now are in favor of the idea. It is probable that the library board will give its consent to the establishment of a rest room in the basement of the library, and the then it will be up to the council to see that the work is done immediately.

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT MAKE PUBLIC NAMES OF VISITORS

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Theodore Roosevelt announced today he would decline to make public in future the names of persons who should call upon him, and anything that they may say on "hot" say "Colonel Roosevelt" had nothing to say upon any other topic. "Gentlemen, I have nothing to say on any subject, not a word," he told the newspaper men. "Nothing to say and not half a minute to say it in."

Colonel Roosevelt was asked to be would comment upon the appointment of Henry Cleave as assistant to Andrew Carnegie, chairman of the reception committee at the peace banquet tomorrow night. Mr. Cleave will take the place which has been reserved for Mayor Gaynor.

"I don't intend to," Colonel Roosevelt said, and I have nothing to say."

The reception committee of the Carnegie office was crowded with visitors, many of whom had no business to be there.

OPTIMISTIC REGARDING SITUATION IN COPPER

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Senator William Clark, president of the United Verde Copper company, takes an optimistic view of the copper situation and predicts that output will be 110,000 tons.

"So far as we know, there are no large deposits of copper being opened, and an increase of production from new sources is not probable within the next four or five years. There will be a material increase of production later on, and within the next six or eight months the reason of the installation of new plants in Arizona on the so-called porphyry deposits, but I believe that this increase, though it will be large, will have no material influence on the market, inasmuch as with the resumption of normal conditions of trade, new fast taking places the consumption of copper will be correspondingly increased in the United States, and it is already heavy in Europe."

It is pointed out that the new copper plant in Arizona will not be completed until the next year, and that the output of the new plant will be small.

The copper situation is being watched closely by the market, and it is expected that the output of the new plant will be small.

production will be correspondingly increased with a price ranging from 14 1/2 to 15 cents.

"Therefore, in every instance when the price was unduly advanced and brought above 15 cents it has resulted in a collapse, sometimes in figures that would not admit of profitable trading, but for most of the large companies."

ODD FELLOWS ASK LAND BOARD FOR HOME SITE

DENVER, Dec. 29.—The grand lodge of the Odd Fellows, No. 100, has asked the state land board for a site for a home for the Odd Fellows.

The argument is made that the location of the home land would not only increase the value of the land, but also other benefits to the community.

This is the home which the Odd Fellows have been seeking a location in various parts of the state and for many years.

Montrose, Miliken and a half-dozen other towns have offered sites.

The state land board yesterday took the proposition of the Odd Fellows under consideration.

The state owns 300 acres adjoining the city of Denver, and the Odd Fellows have been seeking a location in various parts of the state and for many years.

YOUNG BOY SAVES MOTHER

CHENEY, Colo., Dec. 29.—For the preservation of his mother, a young boy, who dragged her from the track of a moving passenger train, when she slipped off the track, Mrs. A. C. Patterson would have sold her life for a few dollars.

The boy, who is 10 years old, was in the yard when the train passed, and he saw his mother slipping off the track. He ran to the track and dragged her back to safety.

The boy's mother was seriously injured, but she is now recovering from her wounds.

The boy's father, Mr. Patterson, is a well-known citizen of Cheney, and he is proud of his son's bravery.
